RULES REGARDING PURCHASES MADE BY AGENTS OF THE COMMISSARIAT DEPARTMENT.

1. Agents of the Commissariat Department have, by virtue of their office, the care and the responsibility for the safe and proper storing and keeping, in the places appointed for the custody thereof, of all goods in their charge. They are also at times required to make purchases on behalf of Government, for which they are provided with public funds.

2. If agents, instead of receiving advances from Commissariat Officers, obtain goods from vendors on credit, and pay for them after receipt of payment of their bills for the said goods, it should be understood that such procedure is unauthorized and beyond the scope of their authority, and the outside public and dealers in general are hereby informed that the Commissariat Department does not hold itself responsible for any debts or liabilities which are incurred by its agents, unless they are specially authorized by the Commissariat Officer to purchase on credit.

3. The transactions of Commissariat agents are entirely between themselves and the vendors; the Commissariat Officer pays the agent's and not the vendor's bills; and the circumstance of the purchaser being an agent of the State will not render the State liable for purchases made on credit given to the agent.

UNDER SECTION 9 OF THE SUITS VALUATION ACT, 1887.

No. 563-719.—Whereas the subject-matter of the following classes of suits does not admit of being satisfactorily valued, the Chief Commissioner of Ajmere-Merwara is pleased to direct, in supersession of Notification No. 1111-719, dated the 10th September, 1887, published at page 539 of the Gazette of India, Part II, of 17th idem, that they shall be treated for the purposes of the Court-fees Act, 1870, and of the Suits Valuation Act, 1887, and the Ajmere Courts Regulation, 1877, as if their subject-matter were of the value hereinafter stated.

(1) Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint asks for a decree against the other party to the alleged marriage either alone, or with other defendants, for restitution of conjugal rights, or for a decree for the recovery of a wife.

(2) Similar suits for a decree establishing, or annulling, or dissolving a marriage.

(3) Suits in which the plaintiff in the plaint asks for a decree establishing a right to the custody or guardianship of a minor, including guardianship for the purpose of marriage.

VALUE.—The value of suits of these four classes shall be deemed to be as follows:—

(a) For the purpose of the Court Fees Act—
Suits of class 1, ₹100.

Suits of classes 2, 3, and 4, ₹200.

The 8th June, 1888.

No. 572-374.—In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by Sections 4 and 5 of Act XIV of 1879 (The Hackney Carriages Act, 1879) the Chief Commissioner of Ajmere-Merwara is pleased, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, to make the following rules for the regulation and control of hackney carriages in the Military Cantonment of Nusseerabad. The rules shall be published within the cantonment limits, in such manner as the Cantonment Committee may direct, for a period of not less than one month, at the expiration of which they shall have the force of law.

Rules.

1. No hackney carriage of any of the classes determined by these rules shall be let to hire or taken to ply or offered for hire except under a license granted in that behalf by the Cantonment Committee.

2. Such license shall be issued from the Cantonment Magistrate's Office after the carriages have been approved of by the Cantonment Committee or such person as they shall appoint to determine the class to which the carriages shall belong.

3. There shall be four classes of hackney carriages according to the quality of horses and vehicles, and licenses shall be granted to them subject to all the provisions contained in these rules and to the following conditions, vis. :—

(a) That the carriage is in good order and repair in all its parts.

(b) That it is provided with two serviceable lamps, with the exception of carriages of the 4th class, which shall be required to carry one lamp only.

(d) That the harness is complete and serviceable.

4. Licenses shall continue in force for the official year during which they are granted. But they shall be liable to revocation within that time by order of the Cantonment Committee or such person appointed on their behalf, on proof before them or him that the proprietor or his agent has been guilty of an infringement of any of these rules, or that the conditions on which the license was granted are not fully maintained.

5. An application to renew the license shall be made one month before the expiry of the year of license and the renewed license shall be granted in the same way and by the same officers as provided in rules 2 and 3, on payment of the same fee as for the original license.

6. When a licensed hackney carriage is transferred to a new proprietor during the time of license, the name of such proprietor shall be duly reported both by the transferor and transferee to the Cantonment Magistrate's Office and shall be substituted in the license for the name of the transferor without further payment.

7. Each license shall bear a serial number and this number shall be printed in English, Hindi, and Urdu, in a conspicuous place on the licensed hackney carriage.

8. All hackney carriage licenses and carriages shall be produced for inspection whenever ordered by the Cantonment Committee or such person as they may empower to do so on their behalf.

9. No person shall be allowed to act as the driver of a licensed vehicle except under a driver's license granted to him on that behalf by the officers mentioned in rule 2. A driver's license is not transferable and shall be granted for the official year. A driver's license shall not be granted to any person under 18 years of age.

10. Every driver so licensed shall wear, while driving a licensed carriage or plying for hire, a badge on his arm, bearing the number of his license.

11. The licenses for hackney carriages and drivers shall be in the form attached to these rules and shall be printed on strong paper. 12. Any proprietor or agent of the proprietor or driver of any licensed vehicle, who knowingly permits it to be drawn by a less number of horses than is provided in the license, or knowingly permits more passengers to be carried in such carriage than is permitted by these rules, or who shall do any act in contravention of rules 1, 7, 8, 9, 10, 13, 15, 16, 18, 22, 23, and 25, shall, in addition to the forfeiture of his license, be liable to a fine which may extend to ₹50.

13. Any driver who cruelly beats, illtreats, overdrives or otherwise misuses any horse driven in a licensed vehicle, shall be liable to forfeiture of his license to drive, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable under any law in force for the time being.

14. It shall be lawful for any person named in rule 2 to enter premises on which licensed vehicles, horses, harness, &c., are kept, in order to carry out the provisions of these rules.
